

I

Jerusalem Cross with Crosses

Look to the east, O Jerusalem, and see the joy that is coming to you from God.

IV

His Name Will Be Called

In Jesus the Christ, the Wonderful Counselor, we find comfort and an end to warfare.

II

Ship of Salvation

This chrismon, newly created for us this year, harks back to fourteenth century imagery likening Jesus the Christ to a ship, whose cargo is salvation.

V

Sun of Righteousness

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;...on them light has shined.

III

Gladiolus

A gladiolus symbolizes the Incarnation, the Word made flesh. The word gladiolus is from the Latin word, gladius, which means sword. Each leaf looks like a two-edged sword. Thus it is a sword in plant form, or a living sword.

VI

Open Pearl Rose

The rose is often used as a symbol for Jesus of Nazareth's mother, Mary, which points to the Christ's human birth and His humanity.
